FOUR BASE BALL TEAMS FOR Y. M. C. A.

Men and Boys Organized Under Direction of Physical Instructor—Game Arranged for Saturday.

The Young Men's Christian Association has been an important factor in the athletic world for some time, and of late years has exerted a strong influence for "clean sports." According to Mr. Sullivan, the head of the American Athletic Union, the association has done more to advance the spirit of clean sport than any other organization.

It is the purpose of the athletic committee of the local association to organize several baseball teams this season, probably two among the men and one among the juniors. There are quite a number of good ball players in the association membership, and they have had several meetings already to pick out teams. They propose to play among themselves and also with some local and nearby teams.

A game has been arranged with the strong team of the Hampton association to be played on the Soldiers' Home grounds next Saturday at 3 o'clock.

There may also be a game on the Casino grounds with the second team. A team of the intermediates will go with the Presbyterian Sunday school to Jamestown next Thursday to play a game there with a picked team.

The personnel of the teams will most likely be as follows:

First team—Willie, captain; Austin Fleet, Monfalcone, Hughes, Hantz, Lenz, McArdle, McFall, Seabrook, Noel.

Second team—Silbert, captain; Vandergrift, Barbage, Benson, Sinclair, Wright, Hughes, Davis, Taylor, Edwards, Spears, Binn.

Third team—Davis, Miles, Hamilton, P.; Hamilton, H.; Rowbottom, Gray, Curtis, Williamson, Boshier, Gayle, Overton.

Fourth team—Butler, R.; Davis, Eps, Fothering, Goddin, Strinmeyer, McHade, Holmes, R.; Morgan, Klor, R.; Klor, S.; Holmes, H. B. R.

The play possesses a peculiar charm found in few modern plays and the players have opportunities to bring out fine emotional qualities and unctuous humor of an intensely human story.

"The scenic environment is on a more pretentious scale than has been given any of the previous successful productions of the Gagnon-Pollock company. The settings were imported especially for this production and were used in the theatre for the first time at last night's performance.

Miss Pollock, Mr. Gagnon and the supporting company acquitted themselves in a creditable manner and the performance as a whole was one of the best offered the patrons of the popular bayside playhouse in a long time.

The new specialty bill was productive of several pleasant surprises, the budget being lengthy and well diversified, each winning well deserved encores.

"The Little Minister," with the new vaudeville annex, will be seen again tonight and tomorrow night.

Raised Rough House.

Pat Sullivan, George Clark, A. Tolheim, Mike Walsh, James Malley, Charles Doherty and J. C. Boyle were each fined $3.50 in the police court yesterday for being disorderly. The fines were remitted. Mrs. Inglehard, who keeps a boarding house at 3815 Virginia avenue, was before the court charged with conducting a disorderly house and she was released on bail to appear Wednesday, when she will be given a hearing. The men were arrested at the boarding house.

Husband and Wife Jailed.

Michael Welsh and his wife were sent to jail for ten days "to get sober" by Justice Brown yesterday. The man had his wife arrested Saturday for assault and battery and when the case was called it was apparent that both had been on a spree. Three children, two boys and a little girl, were in court with their father. They were sent home, the boys being told to take care of their sister.

Death of an Infant.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Loftus died yesterday at the residence, 1039 Twenty-fifth street. The body was interred at Greenlawn cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Sunday School Picnic.

The Sunday school of the Trinity Lutheran church will give its annual picnic Thursday to Pine Beach.

Dr. Porter Sails.

Rev. J. W. Porter, D. D., pastor of the Newport News Baptist church, sailed yesterday on the British steamship Kanawha for Liverpool. Dr. Porter will spend about a month traveling in Europe and it is possible that he will visit the Holy Land before returning home. Sunday special services were held at the church in celebration of Dr. Porter's fourth anniversary as pastor of the church and unusually large congregations gathered at the church both morning and evening.

Eliglow May Suffer Collapse.

(By Associated Press.) FORT LEAVENWORTH, KAN., June 12.—Frank G. Eliglow, the Milwaukee banker, who was brought here last night to begin his ten-year sentence in the federal prison is in the hospital. His nervous condition is such that Dr. Thomas, under whose care he is, fears a general physical breakdown.

OLD WILLIAMSBURG

"Frisco Slim" to Stand Trial on Charge of Robbery.

A CONTINUANCE WAS GRANTED

Flaw Discovered in Original Indictment and Grand Jury Proceeds to Bring in a New One—Negro Charged With Stealing Horse.

(Special to the Daily Press.)

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., June 12.—The June term of the Circuit Court of Williamsburg and James City county convened here this morning with the largest attendance in many months. The increase in numbers is attributable to the trial of "Frisco Slim" and the activity of politicians.

"Frisco Slim," alias John Smith, etc., was brought here this morning from the Newport News jail by Sheriff W. W. Ware and his deputy, R. A. L. Lawson. He is charged with complicity in the robbery of the Peninsula bank five years ago last May. The prisoner is being defended by R. T. Armistead and Commonwealth's Attorney N. L. Henley is being assisted in the prosecution by Herbert J. Lewis, of West Point.

A grand jury today brought in a new indictment against "Frisco Slim," there being some flaw or apparent flaw in the original one.

The trial was continued until the next term of court on request of the commonwealth's attorney, two important witnesses being absent. The defense declared itself ready for immediate trial and "Frisco Slim" was taken back to Newport News to remain till next August.

Fine Horse stolen.

B. C. Givins, living near here, in York county, had stolen from his stable on Saturday night, a fine horse. Suspicion pointed to one George Murray, colored, and Mr. Givins swore out a warrant for his arrest yesterday evening. Constable W. W. Bull is now after the man and his arrest is expected shortly.

Mr. Robinson Defends Ash.

Attorney E. S. Robinson, of Newport News, and his two young sons were here today. Mr. Robinson represents E. D. Ash, the colored man who is alleged to have buried a man at Toano without coffin or shroud.

Personal Mention.

Mr. R. T. Gregory, of New Kent, candidate for the House of Delegates from this district, is in town today "mixing" with the sovereigns.

Sheriff Sydney Curtis, of Warwick, was here today.

VICTIM OF HEARTFAILURE.

John McNeil, a Negro, Found Dead in His Room.

The dead body of John McNeil, a negro laborer, was found in a room in the old Warwick theatre building, on Warwick avenue, early yesterday morning. From the appearance of the corpse it was supposed that life had been extinct since Saturday night.

Other occupants of the building made the ghastly find and they at once notified the police. Dr. B. R. Gary, the coroner, made an examination and decided that death was caused by heart failure. An inquest was deemed unnecessary.

Officers For the Year.

Officers for the ensuing year have been elected by Newport News Lodge, No. 92, I. O. O. F., as follows: D. I. Owens, N. G.; Dr. R. Lee Robinson, V. G.; N. C. Johnson, R. S.; F. C. Bivins, F. S.; W. O. P. Pool, treasurer; J. J. Holzback, assistant R. S.; W. T. Allen, chaplain; Robert Gunning, degree master.

Funeral Sunday.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary F. Johnson, who died Saturday, took place Sunday afternoon at the Trinity Methodist church, Rev. W. B. Beauchamp conducted the services. The body was interred at Greenlawn cemetery.
